

The Evaluation Landscape at Claremont Graduate University

Stewart I. Donaldson
Distinguished University Professor

CLAREMONT EVALUATION CENTER
 Claremont Graduate University

Our Mission

Claremont Graduate University is a leader in graduate education, unique in its transdisciplinary approach to societal problems. Dedicated to the creation, dissemination, and application of new knowledge and perspectives through research, practice, creative works, and community engagement, we prepare our students to be leaders for positive change in the world.

CGU at a Glance

- Founded in 1925
- Exclusively graduate—we're the only research-extensive university in the US devoted to graduate-level education
- 2,000 students enrolled
- Over 22,000 alumni
- 40 Master's Degree Fields, 19 Doctoral Degree Fields, 9 Certificate Fields
- Globally known faculty scholars
- Transdisciplinary approach to learning
- Intimate, collaborative learning environment—median class size of 10

The Claremont Colleges

- Students benefit from the expanded resources of the highly ranked Claremont Colleges
- Access to extended faculty network, opportunities, and knowledge enhance your learning and experience
- Cross registration allows our students to take courses across the neighboring campuses
- The Fiske Guide describes the Claremont Colleges as a “collection of intellectual resources unmatched in America.”

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES • Claremont Graduate University
Pomona College • Scripps College • Claremont McKenna College
Harvey Mudd College • Pitzer College • Keck Graduate Institute

“The City of Trees & PhDs”

- Founded in 1887
- Population approx. 36,000
- Vibrant, bike-friendly city
- The “Village” offers a movie house, comedy club, restaurants, pubs, shops and more
- 140 acres of parks
- Over 300 sunny days per year
- Named a “Tree City” the past 22 years by the Arbor Day Foundation
- Ranked 5th in Money magazine’s “Best Places to Live”
- 35 miles east of Los Angeles, easily accessible via car or public transportation

CGU BY THE NUMBERS

CLAREMONT GRADUATE UNIVERSITY features a dedicated faculty engaged in cutting-edge research, and enrolls a diverse student body whose members bring to the classroom a wide range of experiences from across the country and around the globe.

FACULTY

133
CORE FACULTY

The Claremont
Colleges Faculty
700+

$3.4M
FACULTY GRANTS 2018

An icon consisting of a stack of orange coins with a green coin on top that has a white dollar sign on it.

8:1
STUDENT TO FACULTY

56%
FEMALE

44%
MALE

STUDENT POPULATION

34%
DOMESTIC
STUDENTS
OF COLOR

STUDENTS

INTERNATIONAL: 23%

COUNTRIES
REPRESENTED: 53

67%
Full-Time

36%
Master's

61%
Doctoral

83%
FELLOWSHIP
RECIPIENTS

$11M Fellowships
Available

$16K Avg Annual Fellowship

22,000+
ALUMNI STRONG

CLAREMONT EVALUATION CENTER

Claremont Graduate University

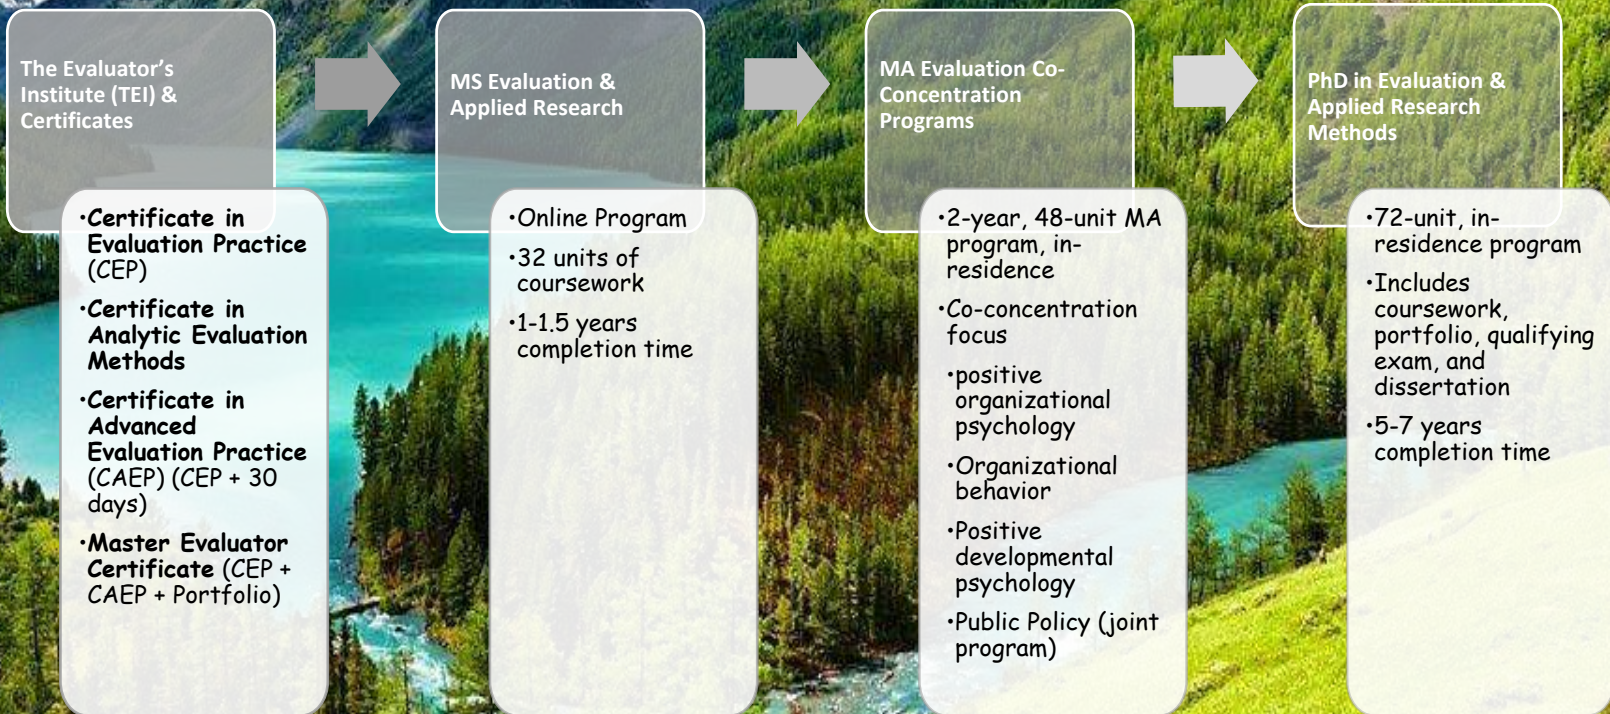

Diverse Training & Evaluation
Pipeline Programs

Evaluation-Specific Courses &
Opportunities

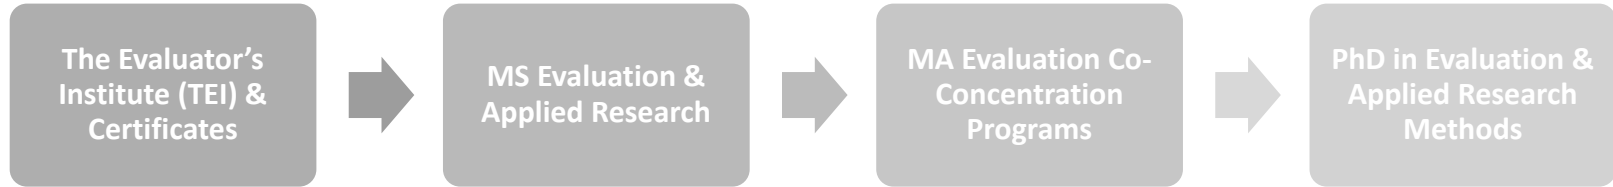

Vibrant, Strong,
and Growing

Talented Core & Affiliated
Faculty Experts

Robust Research &
Evaluation Practice
Community

World Class Evaluation Faculty

Evaluation-Specific Training

Evaluation Affiliated Faculty from Public Policy, Education & Public Health

Proposed for Fall 2024

Doctorate in Evaluation Practice

- Low Residence Requirement
- Mostly Online Education
- Flexible Design for Working Professionals

